Then dine under the stars at a shared table with fellow travellers, choosing from a bush tucker inspired menu with native ingredients, with Australian wine and beer on offer. ULURU

DAY 3 | Friday 13th August 2027 (B)

An early start rewards you with the two major landmarks of Uluru-Kata Tjuta National Park. Begin with sunrise at Talinguru Nyakunytjaku, the Uluru sunrise viewing area, where the desert sky glows behind the ancient rock while you enjoy a warm cup of tea or coffee. Then drive 45 km to Kata Tjuta, with your Guide sharing the geological and cultural story of the site along the way. Walk through Walpa Gorge, surrounded by towering red rock walls and unique desert plants and wildlife. On the way back, stop at the dune viewing platform for panoramic views of Kata Tjuta's southern side. You'll return to the hotel in time for lunch (own expense) with the afternoon at leisure.

This evening, enjoy the Field of Light Star Pass. Watch the sunset over Uluru from a private dune top, with a tasting of four outback-inspired canapés and Australian wine, beer or non-alcoholic drinks, while your host shares stories about Bruce Munro's installation. As night falls, wander through the Field of Light at your own pace, surrounded by colours that shift with the desert.

AYERS ROCK RESORT - KINGS CANYON

DAY 4 | Saturday 14th August 2027 (B,L)

Today you transfer to Kings Canyon Resort, set in Watarrka National Park in the Northern Territory, halfway between Uluru and Alice Springs. The park is known for its rugged ranges, sandstone walls and palm-filled crevices. After checking in, spend the evening at the Light Towers, one of Kings Canyon's newest attractions. Created by acclaimed British artist Bruce Munro, who also made the Field of Light at Uluru, this sound and light installation features 69 two-metre towers that change colour to a soundscape by Orlando Gough. Enjoy canapés and drinks as the towers glow in the sunset, then wander through the maze of lights.
