Day 1: (D) CANBERRA TO TUMUT: Easter Saturday 20 April

Welcome aboard Potter Travel's 3 day tour to the Snowies, featuring the Adaminaby Fair. Cooma will be our first stop to enjoy morning tea before climbing further into the Snowy Mountains to our destination of Adaminaby. It's fair day, so the main street comes alive with plenty to see including the Easter bonnet parade, the market and food stalls and, of course, the Easter bunny himself. Games include dog high jump, the wacky quacky duck race and a tug of war. Our visit here also includes the Snowy Scheme Museum which celebrates the people and the power of this great engineering project. Later our drive takes us through Yarrangobilly and alongside the Tumut River to our overnight stay in Tumut.

Adaminaby
Easter Fair
“A day of fun for the whole family to enjoy”
Easter Saturday from 9am

The banner features a collage of three images: a large pile of colorful plastic Easter eggs in yellow, red, purple, and green; a dog jumping over a brick wall; and a group of people, including children, gathered around a large mural depicting a scenic landscape with a river, trees, and a house.

Day 2: (BLD) EXPLORING TUMUT: Easter Sunday 21 April

Tumut is the most northern town in the Snowy Scheme and sits on the Tumut River in fertile countryside. Its picturesque quality is due to the poplars, elms, oaks and maples lining the streets and being surrounded by streams and rivers, of which trout fishing has become a famous pastime. This morning we visit Bonnie B's Shaker Shed where we can see an eccentric collection of over 3000 salt and pepper shakers! Next is the Tumut Valley Violets where we'll immediately see the old school house that has been repurposed into this delightful venue. Our host will give us a talk on the farm and after some time to enjoy a stroll, we stay on for lunch. Ready with our sing-along voices, we head to the Montreal Theatre which opened to great excitement on 2 April 1930. Today we are treated to a guided tour of the theatre and a delicious afternoon tea as we watch old music reels from the comfort of our seats. Afterwards we'll be humming our way back to the hotel to relax prior to dinner.

Day 3: (BL) TUMUT TO CANBERRA: Easter Monday 22 April

Not far from Tumut is Adelong, a little village of 900 people with a main street classified by the National Trust. We visit the Adelong Alive Museum and have a look around the antique and the arts/craft shops then continue through to Gundagai. We have time here to view Rusconi's Masterpiece then enjoy lunch at the local club. We make our way back to Canberra to complete our fabulous Easter Fair tour.
