DAY 2: (BLD): SPIRIT OF TASMANIA TO SMITHTON: Sunday 23 October 2022

Welcome to Tassie! Capturing the excellent views over the Mersey River and the "Spirit of Tasmania" vessel, we settle our stomachs at Argosy Motor Inn with breakfast. Well rested and well fed we are ready to explore Tasmania!! Don River Railway Museum is our first stop where we have arranged a tour of the workshop as well as a train ride. Heading for Burnie we visit the Emu Valley Rhododendron Garden. Wander the commons, immersing ourselves in this internationally recognised garden, classified as a plant museum. Next is Annsleigh Gardens & Café, for lunch and time to explore the garden. Afterwards we travel to Smithton and settle into the unique Tall Timbers Hotel.

2 nights | Tall Timbers Hotel, Smithton (1800 628 476)

DAY 3: (BLD): ARTHUR RIVER CRUISE: Monday 24 October 2022

Joining the Arthur River Cruise we are introduced to the wild Tarkine region of the North West. Aboard the MV George Robinson we experience a waterway of coastal heath, eucalyptus and wattles as we cruise into rainforest. We enjoy morning tea underway, arriving at Turk's Landing for a leisurely stroll through the temperate rainforest with our guide. This area is home to many threatened and endangered species, such as the Giant Freshwater Crayfish and the Wedge Tailed Eagle, the largest eagle in Australia. Upon return to our camp amongst the trees, we are served a plentiful barbecue lunch. Feeling content, relax as we cruise back to the river's mouth to disembark and make our way back to Smithton.

DAY 4: (BLD): SMITHTON TO CRADLE MOUNTAIN: Tuesday 25 October 2022

Travelling to Cradle Mountain we arrive in time for a light lunch at the Cradle Mountain Hotel. Spending the afternoon in the invigorating mountain air we explore the National Park. Be transfixed by the glacial beauty of Dove Lake and the remnants of the last ice age etched in the surrounding rocks. At the fascinating Waldheim we'll be guided through a cool temperate rainforest to see native trees and, hopefully, some wildlife. An early dinner allows us the opportunity for an unforgettable experience with the iconic Tasmanian Devil. At our special evening, Devils@Cradle helps us uncover the myths surrounding these unique carnivores. Witness these extraordinary animals in action during a rare and up-close group feeding situation - a spectacular sight to be seen!

Cradle Mountain Hotel (03 6492 1404)

DAY 5: (BLD): CRADLE MOUNTAIN TO STRAHAN: Wednesday 26 October 2022

This morning we make our way to Zeehan to discover the region's fascinating history. From mines to memories to trains and treasures, the West Coast Heritage Centre offers a unique insight into the regions past. Arriving into Strahan we undertake a memorable experience as we join the West Coast Railway for the afternoon. Soak up the stunning views of Macquarie Harbour as you travel along the foreshore from Regatta Point Station. Entering the rainforest you'll follow the course of the King River to Teepookana, once the fourth busiest port in Tasmania and the place where construction of the railway first began. The extraordinary engineering achievement of this railway will be evident as you cross historic bridges and see the remains of the 244-metre trestle bridge at Quarter Mile. Visit some of the stations along the line, and have the chance to walk in the rainforest, tasting wild leatherwood honey harvested from the wilderness. At Dubbil Barril watch as the locomotive is turned and we begin our return journey. Back in Strahan we check into our accommodation for the next 2 nights.

2 nights | Strahan Village (03 6471 4200)

DAY 6: (BLD): STRAHAN & GORDON RIVER CRUISE: Thursday 27 October 2022

We are in for a stunning day as our World Heritage Cruise takes us into the wild and remote waters of the Gordon River. Offering a safe harbour to the ancient Huon Pine trees, we'll see these and other trees of the dense forest close up on a Heritage Walk on the penal settlement of Sarah Island. Stumble across the remains of the 3-storey jail house and take a firsthand view of the only entrance to Macquarie Harbour, known as Hells Gates. It's a great day topped off with a beautiful buffet lunch. We return to Strahan mid-afternoon for some free time to enjoy the village.

DAY 7: (BLD): STRAHAN TO HOBART: Friday 28 October 2022

We'll pass dramatic scenery today as we make our way to the east coast. Passing Queenstown the steep descent gives us amazing views as we travel into the pristine wilderness of the Franklin Gordon Wild Rivers National Park. Our stop is Derwent Bridge, known as the geographical centre of the state. Discovering The Wall in the Wilderness we view beautiful carvings in Huon Pine depicting the hardship and perseverance of the people within the local central highlands. The artist, Greg Duncan, has created individual panels each telling a unique story. Lunch is at the Derwent Bridge Hotel before making our way on to Hobart. Travelling via Hamilton and New Norfolk we'll be spellbound by the captivating Tasmanian landscape we journey through. Upon arrival settle into our rooms and prepare for dinner.

4 nights | Wrest Point Hotel Casino (1800 130 002)

DAY 8: (BD): EXPLORING HOBART: Saturday 29 October 2022

Meeting our guide, we unearth the heart of Hobart, finding everywhere we go the past steps out to meet us. Discover Sullivans Cove and the tiny cottages of Battery Point with architecture that whispers stories of a bygone era. The Salamanca Markets are a highlight of a visit to Hobart so we spend some time wandering the stalls along the tree-lined street. This afternoon is free to enjoy as we wish. Meeting up for dinner we can share our afternoon's adventures.

DAY 9: (BLD): BRUNY ISLAND: Sunday 30 October 2022

Embarking on the Bruny Island Traveller, our full day adventure explores spectacular landscapes and gourmet local produce. We'll visit the home of Bruny Island's cheese, oyster, fudge, honey, wine and whisky, savouring their produce as we hear the stories behind the harvest. Visit the Neck, connecting the north and south islands and leave footprints in the sand of a deserted beach. The light bush of the northern island gives way to the dense rainforest of the south, home to diverse wildlife including the rare white wallaby. This is more than just a tasting tour. Another day of highlights under our belt, we return to Hobart having had a fully inclusive experience.

DAY 10: (BLD): PORT ARTHUR: Monday 31 October 2022

Today we experience a humbling visit to the Port Arthur Historic Site. Witnessing the historic penal settlement we are reminded of the harsh conditions endured by the earliest European inhabitants of this one time island jail. At the Visitor Interpretative Centre, our tour begins. Embarking on a fascinating journey retracing the life of a convict, we follow the story from the time of the petty crime in England to the transportation to Port Arthur and life within the penal colony. We'll then be guided through the Settlement with plenty of time to explore afterwards. Leaving the site, we drive back to Hobart, stopping to see some natural attractions on the Tasman Peninsula such as the Tasman Arch and Devils Kitchen.

DAY 11: (BD): HOBART TO SWANSEA: Tuesday 1 November 2022

Leaving Hobart behind us, we stop in the historical town of Richmond. With its streets paved in history we stroll the pretty 19th century lanes, stopping to capture the oldest bridge in Australia - the convict built Richmond Bridge. Visiting the Wicked Cheese Company we enjoy a delicious morning tea and time to peruse all the tasty goodies they offer for purchase. Travelling onto Buckland we'll find the quaint little church with a stained-glass window depicting the life of John the Baptist. After a lunch break in Orford, we continue to our destination of Swansea. The historic town overlooks Freycinet National Park and the magnificent blue waters of Great Oyster Bay. Relaxing into our rooms, we refresh for dinner. Dinner this evening is at the Bark Mill Tavern and Bakery, Australia's only Black Wattle Bark Mill, used for tanning leather.

2 nights | Swansea Motor Inn (03 6257 8102)

DAY 12 (BLD): WINEGLASS BAY CRUISE: Wednesday 2 November 2022

With the impressive Hazard Mountain Range as our backdrop, we head to Coles Bay to cruise to the magical Wineglass Bay. Step aboard the cruise vessel and experience this place of beauty, from the sights of Freycinet Peninsula to the abundant wildlife. Dropping anchor inside Wineglass Bay, take in the tranquility of one of the world's most beautiful beaches and perfect turquoise waters. With the water lapping the boat, feel spoilt as we enjoy some of the area's finest and freshest produce for lunch. It will be a day to remember.

DAY 13: (BLD): SWANSEA TO LAUNCESTON: Thursday 3 November 2022

Heading further along the east coast we pass through the quiet seaside towns of Bicheno and Scamander. We'll find a lovely spot for morning tea before arriving into the rural village of Pyengana, an old tin mining town. It's a pretty place nestled in a lush and fertile valley with green paddocks and cheese producing cows. An early lunch is in one of Tasmania's oldest pubs at the Pub in the Paddock. Continuing to a little spot called Ledgerwood we'll see some incredible tree carvings portraying soldiers lost during World War I. Our final stop is at Bridestowe Estate Lavender Farm to taste a hint of lavender in our afternoon tea and enjoy being introduced to the farm. Launceston is where we'll rest our heads for the night.

Best Western Plus Launceston (03 6333 9999)

DAY 14: (BLD): LAUNCESTON TO DEVONPORT: Friday 4 November 2022

After a pleasant stroll through the landscaped gardens exploring Cataract Gorge we head to the majestic Tamar Valley. We begin at Beaconsfield where we'll visit the Gold and Heritage Museum, a place where you can lose yourself within its history. Play with treasures from the past and uncover a different story around every corner. At Beauty Point, gain unique access into the world of the mysterious seahorse and watch the shy Tasmanian platypus' going about their daily business hunting for mealworms. We enjoy lunch at Seahorse World before continuing through to Devonport. Late afternoon we board the Spirit of Tasmania ready for departure back to Melbourne this evening.

Spirit of Tasmania Port hole cabins (13 20 10)

DAY 15: (BL): MELBOURNE TO CANBERRA: Saturday 5 November 2022

Wow what a spectacular holiday to have experienced, discovering immense natural beauty from towering mountains to completely wild and pristine wilderness. Exploring charming towns and villages steeped with intriguing history and meeting some of the unique native wildlife that call Tassie home! Today we head for home with a suitcase full of memories and many stories to share.
