Welcome aboard, with bags packed and excitement building, we join the coach and get underway. Nearing western Sydney, we stop for lunch at the Blacktown Workers Club. Day 2 (BD): MAITLAND TO TAMWORTH: Friday 17 January 2020

Our journey takes us through to Tamworth, ready for an afternoon at the largest music festival in the southern hemisphere. Feel the buzz of the festival as we head to the Tamworth Visitors Centre, located next to the Golden Guitar. Whilst here we have the opportunity to purchase tickets for those wishing to see a particular show, otherwise enjoy the vast amount of free entertainment on offer at the festival. Along with the information centre it also houses the Wax Museum and a Sports Memorabilia Museum including a very large, privately owned Bradman Collection for our cricket fans.

Our ears attuned to country music, we include a stop at the Walk a Country Mile museum where the warm, richly resonant voice of Jack Thompson will narrate and enlighten us on the story of Australian Country Music. The remainder of our morning is spent enjoying the festival. Heading west we leave Tamworth this afternoon and set our sights on Coonabarabran, the town nestled at the foothills of the Warrumbungles.
