Rise and shine as we depart on our ferry to spectacular Kangaroo Island. After our short ferry ride we arrive into Penneshaw ready to see some unique local attractions. Clifford's Honey Farm is home to Kangaroo Island's own population of Ligurian bees (the only pure strain in the world). After our guided tour and a taste of the delicious honey we head to nearby Emu Ridge Eucalyptus Distillery. This is our lunch venue as well as viewing the plant and equipment used in producing eucalyptus oil and its products. Rounding out our day is a visit to the Raptor Domain. One of the oldest towns on the majestic Murray River, Mannum overlooks a wide section of the river and is the starting point of the PS Murray Princess. We find our way to Mary Ann Reserve to board the largest inland paddle wheeler in the southern hemisphere. Settling into our cabins we have time to familiarise ourselves with the vessel and prepare for departure. Heading downriver we enjoy a welcome dinner celebrating the start of our 3 night Discovery Cruise. Cruising under floodlight we may see nocturnal wildlife on the riverbank as we stop to moor overnight at Mundurra. Watch for kangaroos, hairy-nosed wombats and egrets amongst other species. Our on-board entertainer provides music for the night owls.
