DAY 5: (BD): NORFOLK ISLAND: Tuesday 30 August 2022

This morning we enjoy the Colleen McCullough Home Tour. Colleen McCullough, world renowned author of 24 books called Norfolk Island home for almost 36 years. She and her husband, Norfolk Islander, Ric Robinson, created a luxurious hideaway and maintained their privacy to ensure that Colleen had the perfect environment for her writing. Some of her most powerful titles were created in this much loved sanctuary. Sadly, Colleen passed away in 2015 after a long battle with illness. Nevertheless, she stoically continued writing for as long as she possibly could and fulfilled her great wish to remain on Norfolk Island. Her beloved property “Out Yenna” is now open exclusively to Baunti Tours customers. You are escorted through her magnificent home and are able to view Ric and Colleen’s priceless collection of artefacts gathered on their travels all over the world. You will see where her books were researched and where she worked into the wee hours creating the incredible tales that have sold in their millions in so many different languages. You will learn about how Colleen enjoyed her Norfolk paradise and how it inspired her with its rich history and natural beauty. Learn to how she gave back to Norfolk and touched many people’s lives. This is a glimpse into the life of a modern day literary icon. If you have read her amazing books, you will love the experience of sharing the world of Colleen McCullough, author of Tim, The Thornbirds and Morgan’s Run. This afternoon enjoy the Taste of Norfolk and meet some passionate local producers. Visit a bee-keepers home to view flow hives, learn about the fascinating local honeybees, view their incredible flight path to their hives and taste the local honey. See how a Norfolk couple are trying their hand at tanning the skins of the cattle you see roaming the sides of the road. Visit another host who is making local salt from the oceans that surround the island. You will taste of our local beef and the salt they are producing for cooking and table. Then moving on to meet another Norfolk Islander where you’ll view a cooking demonstration. You will see and hear about our traditional dishes that were handed down by our Tahitian foremothers. Watch us create green banana fritters flavoured with local honey or a similar dish depending on the seasons.

DAY 6: (BD): NORFOLK ISLAND: Wednesday 31 August 2022

Following breakfast the morning is free. After lunch (own expense) we find out how the island works with a Farm and Industry Tour. While tourism is Norfolk’s largest industry, it is by no means its only one. On this tour, you are taken to a selection of the many other enterprises that sustain this community. These might include: raising meat producing sheep, market gardening, pig farming, manufacturing soft drinks and liqueurs, gardening or exporting Kentia seedlings. Tonight we enjoy the Commandants Dinner. This factual yet fun dinner theatre is Norfolk Island’s newest interactive show and a great way to learn about Norfolk’s history. The cast of actors will take you on an entertaining journey back in time. You will be enthralled by the Commandant’s stories about the notorious Convict Settlements on Norfolk Island and how the convicts were treated by sadists and reformers. Listen to a chilling recall of one of the infamous rebellions. Marvel at how the Commandants and their families adapted to life in a Norfolk Island penal colony, recreating a little piece of England in the Pacific. Explore their great challenges, impressive successes and shameful secrets. Our venue, The Paradise Hotel, has created a special three course dinner menu of traditional English fare to compliment the theatrical setting. Hearty, wholesome, British tucker fit for a Commandant and his good lady wife – fortunately prepared by free men in a modern kitchen not a poor convict over a wood stove! The Commandant’s Dinner is a night of great entertainment, delectable food and loads of fun.

DAY 7: (BD): NORFOLK ISLAND: Thursday 01 September 2022

This morning we start the day with the Breakfast Bushwalk (which caters to all levels of walking—or, alternatively, we can arrange for you to be collected). The Breakfast Bushwalk is a relaxed amble through the national park with a local guide—a BBQ breakfast and ocean view await us at the end. Afterwards the remainder of the day is free to relax or do some personal sight seeing or shopping. Late afternoon we head out to an Island Fish Feast for dinner. A place for “angels and eagles” was La Perouse’s description of Norfolk Island when he failed to find a suitable landing place back in the eighteenth century. Perched on the clifftop above Anson Bay, you will have an eagle-eyed view of the tiny crescent-shaped beach and the magnificent spread of ocean stretching to the far horizon. The beautifully set tables will delight you – it’s the most glamorous picnic you will ever attend! And then the food! Scrumptiously fresh, local fish is prepared the local way in golden beer batter and accompanied with a range of seasonal island dishes including those passed down from the Polynesian fore-mothers. See how the locals make the most of their home grown produce and enjoy paddock to plate freshness. This extends even to dessert which is Norfolk Island pies made from local eggs and fruit in season. A cash bar offers wine, beer and juice, so you don’t even have to worry about bringing your own. The feast kicks off with an entertainer and a very talented group of Tahitian-style dancers, silhouetted against the setting sun. And even when the sunset fails to dazzle, the singing and dancing will definitely set the tone for an evening of fun and relaxation. After a great evening we return to the hotel.

DAY 8: (B): NORFOLK ISLAND TO CANBERRA: Friday 02 September 2022

After breakfast enjoy a morning at leisure before we transfer to the airport to board our flight home via Sydney (flight times to be advised).
