

HISTORIC CROOKWELL

Tuesday 23 June 2020

Enjoy a day tour to Crookwell, a place full of surprises with many claims to fame. An experienced tour guide boards our coach for a comprehensive overview of Crookwell old and new, to tell the history and stories behind many of the local landmarks and provides an overview of how the town has changed. Perched high up on the Great Dividing Range, with a cold climate, rich basalt soils and reliable rainfall. Crookwell is famous for wonderful gardens and producing top quality certified disease-free seed potatoes. But did you know that this historic town is also famous for producing sporting champions such as current Australian legend Hockeyroos Captain Emily Chalker. As well as our guided tour we enjoy lunch at the local pub and time for a wander.
