As well as Tumut, discover charming towns, ancient stories and interesting local characters in the magnificent Snowy Mountains.

Day 1: (LD): WELCOME TO TUMUT: Wednesday 24 March 2021

Joining the Potter Travel coach, we hit the road in anticipation of the tour ahead. Travelling to Yass, we enjoy morning tea at the Country Kitchen then back on the road to Gundagai. On the outskirts of town, say hello to the well-known memorial to Australia’s pioneer spirit, The Dog on the Tuckerbox. After a club lunch, we continue to our destination of Tumut, located in fertile countryside surrounded by streams and rivers famous for trout fishing. Poplars, elms, oaks and maples line the streets of this attractive town. A local resident joins us on the coach for a summary of the region’s stories before settling into our accommodation.

Day 2: (BLD): TUMUT SIGHTSEEING: Thursday 25 March 2021

Set into the depths of Yarrangobilly Caves, we’ll discover stalagmites, stalactites and delicate decorations like shawls and cave corals. Taking a guided tour through Jillabenan Cave, a small yet accessible cave, it is packed with incredibly detailed formations. Back in Tumut, we visit Tumut Valley Violets located in the old, repurposed school house. Enjoying a delicious lunch, our hosts will uncover the secrets behind growing these gorgeous plants. After time to take a stroll we anticipate our final visit at the heritage listed Montreal Theatre. Treated to a guided tour and a delicious afternoon tea, our excitement will build as we settle into the comfort of our seats. Be moved by the scenes before us as we watch old music reels, taking us back to the treasured times of our past. Afterwards we’ll be humming our way back to the hotel.

Day 3: (BLD): BOGGY CREEK SHOW: Friday 26 March 2021

Today we visit the Boggy Creek Show for an outstanding depiction of the unique Snowy Mountain heritage. The family's presence for three generations in these wild and wonderful mountains has left them with a legacy from the past, with which they live today. Be inspired with breathtaking landscapes as we experience the authentic mountain farm show. The live performance combines the skills of horsemanship, mustering, working Kelpie dogs and unique Aussie humour. For lunch we visit one of the most unusual small museums, The Pioneer Womens Hut. The cleverly themed museum reflects the ingenuity of women in finding solutions to the challenges of looking after a family in early rural Australia. The museum features an excellent collection of domestic artefacts, agricultural machinery and local crafts.

Day 4: (BL): TUMUT TO CANBERRA: Saturday 27 March 2021

Our last day begins with a visit to the popular Tumut Broom Factory. The district grows the highest-grade broom millet in NSW and 90% of the State's requirements come from this area. The crop is sown in November and harvested in February. After threshing out the grain, the stems are brought to the factory in Adelong Road to be made into brooms. On our way home, we stop in the heritage listed township of Adelong. With a specialist joining us, we'll be shown the Adelong Falls Gold Mill Ruins. A state listed industrial site, the remarkable stone ruins show ingenuity from the era of alluvial gold mining along Adelong Creek. Continuing through to Bowning let's call in for lunch before making tracks for Canberra and home.
