Beautiful undulating country steep in history

Discovered by Captain Cook it was twice settled as a Convict Settlement and twice abandoned.

The original buildings of these settlements are beautifully restored and on display today. Its third and permanent settlement came with the relocation of the descendants of the famous mutineers of the Bounty from the tiny island of Pitcairn, about 3000 miles to the east in the mid 1800s. Today the families of these descendants are prominent. The history and scenery will make this a memorable holiday.
