Step back in time and celebrate Australia's rich literary heritage at the iconic Henry Lawson Festival of the Arts in the charming country town of Grenfell. This vibrant annual event honours one of Australia's most beloved writers, Henry Lawson, with a lively program of arts, culture, and community spirit.

Sit back, relax, and enjoy the scenic countryside as we make our way toward Grenfell. Along the way, we'll stop for a delicious breakfast at Rollonin Cafe, giving you the chance to enjoy a hearty meal and start the day feeling refreshed.

Arriving in Grenfell, you'll have time to see the festival highlight - the colourful street parade and soak up the vibrant festival atmosphere. Wander through bustling street markets, discover unique arts and crafts, enjoy live music and entertainment, and explore heritage displays celebrating Henry Lawson's life and work. There will also be plenty of options to purchase lunch at your leisure.

In the afternoon, we begin our comfortable journey home, including a short comfort stop along the way to stretch your legs and refresh. We return in the early evening, concluding a wonderful day filled with culture, history, and country charm.
