Late morning we make our way to Orbost where we take time to view the Orbost Exhibition Centre. Located on the Snowy River, the exhibition is all about timber and includes the National Collection of Wood Design, which is on permanent display here. Ready for lunch we venture on to Marlo, where the Snowy meets the sea. Perched on the hill overlooking the estuaries, the Historic Marlo Hotel offers a wonderful view as we enjoy our lunch before returning to Lakes Entrance.
