ART GALLERY NSW

Enjoy an included lunch at the beautiful Art Gallery of New South Wales before exploring one of Australia's most anticipated annual art events, the Archibald, Wynne and Sulman Prizes exhibition. This iconic showcase brings together the very best of contemporary Australian and New Zealand art, with a strong focus on storytelling through portraiture. The Archibald Prize reveals the people behind the portraits and the stories they tell, offering a vivid reflection of the personalities shaping our times. Alongside this, the Wynne Prize celebrates the diversity of Australian landscape painting and figurative sculpture, while the Sulman Prize presents bold and imaginative subject, genre and mural works, judged in 2026 by acclaimed artist Del Kathryn Barton. Your ticket provides access to all three exhibitions, along with opportunities to participate in the ANZ People's Choice Award. Making this a rich and engaging cultural experience.

SISTINE CHAPEL REVELATIONS

Experience one of the world's most recognisable cultural landmarks in a breathtaking new way with the Sistine Chapel Revelations Exhibition Sydney, located inside the St Mary's Cathedral Forecourt. This immersive exhibition brings Rome to Sydney through a remarkable recreation of the Vatican's most treasured artistic space, allowing visitors to engage with Michelangelo's masterpiece in a state-of-the-art, contemplative environment.

An introductory gallery explores the history, architecture, and significance of the Sistine Chapel, before the experience unfolds into a spectacular immersive projection chamber. Using ultra-high-resolution imagery from the Vatican Museums' archives, visitors can admire extraordinary detail in Michelangelo's frescoes, including The Last Judgement, accompanied by curated audio storytelling. This unforgettable exhibition transforms one of the world's greatest works of art into a powerful sensory experience.
