Step into a century-old railway tunnel turned mushroom farm, then wander through a colourful flower garden - all in a single day trip.

Travel by luxury coach from Canberra to Mittagong for a fascinating guided tour through the historic Mushroom Tunnel Farm, a 19th-century railway tunnel in the Southern Highlands transformed into a working underground mushroom farm. Your tour begins at the Southern Highlands Visitor Information Centre, where your expert guide will lead you into the tunnel's echoing stone passageway and share its history - from its origins as a railway tunnel to its modern life growing exotic edible and medicinal mushrooms in the cool, constant darkness. See a colourful variety of fungi up close, learn how traditional and innovative methods bring them to life, and take home your own fresh-picked mushrooms from the farm. Afterwards, enjoy a relaxed lunch nearby.

On your way home, stop at Collector Cottage, a small flower farm just north of Canberra, for an exclusive peek behind the scenes of a blooming local enterprise. Meet Rachel, who will share her passion for growing beautiful blooms and take you on a wander through the garden, with dahlias in season and a few to take home as well.

Arrive back in Canberra in the late afternoon.
